PART 1 – Use and Retention of Personal Data

1. GERMANY ENABLING OFFICE (GEO) is part of the Ministry of Defence. This privacy policy explains how we process the personal data we collect and hold about you.

What data do we collect about you?

2. We collect, store, and process various categories of personal information about you which has either;
 - a. Been provided by you.
 - b. Held in your service record.
 - c. Recorded by CCTV or other photographic methods as sound or visual images (for example, photographs for ID cards and passes).

The purposes for collecting and processing your personal data

3. We collect and use your personal data for various purposes.
 - a. To comply with legal and regulatory requirements under both UK and German law, such as in regard to health and safety, law enforcement, crime prevention and the maintenance of law and order.
 - b. For business management and planning, including accounting and auditing, and to ensure compliance with our personnel, IT and security policies. This may include monitoring your business and personal use of our information and communication systems.
 - c. To provide you with a Veterans NAAFI Shopping Permit so that you may access the facility.
 - d. For the purpose of administering and safeguarding security and intelligence matters.
4. We may also use your anonymised data for purposes such as data analytics studies to review and better understand the Veteran population and for other research or statistical purposes.
5. Some of the purposes will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal information on a single or multiple occasion.

The legal basis for the processing your personal data

6. We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal information in one or more of the following circumstances;
- a. Where it is in the public interest to do so; or for official purposes; or in the exercise of a function of the Crown, a Minister of the Crown or as a government department.
 - b. Where it is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests of a third party or MOD, where such processing is not necessary in pursuit of our public tasks, unless those interests are overridden by your rights.
 - c. Where we need to comply with a legal obligation including those that relate to our specific arrangements with Germany in regard to the Force.
 - d. Where it is necessary for performing the task/contract we have entered into with you.
 - e. Where we have your informed consent.
 - f. Where it is necessary in order to protect your vital interests of those of another individual.

How long do we keep your personal data?

7. We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.
8. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the category and nature of the personal information, the amount of data, its sensitivity, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure, the purposes for which we process the personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means.
9. After the reasonable and necessary retention period has elapsed, all data will be destroyed securely in line with MOD data destruction policy.

Other matters

10. If you do not provide the data referred to above as requested, it may prove impossible for us to fulfil the necessary purpose.
11. We do use the data you have provided for automatic decision making.

Your rights

12. Unless an exemption applies, you have the following rights;
- a. Right to request a copy of the personal data we hold about you,
 - b. The right to have any inaccuracies in your information corrected;
 - c. In certain circumstances you may have the right to have the personal data we hold on you erased.
